- ❖ What is needed to attend online classes?
 - You need a digital device with a webcam and microphone, or that can be attached to a webcam and microphone, and a stable Internet connection. For details, please refer to “Preparing a system environment” in Preparing for Online Classes.

 - Online classes are easy to take. For details, please refer to the guide on the website and the course descriptions.

- ❖ Can I attend an online class without a webcam?
 - We recommend you use a PC with a built-in camera and microphone, as that will make it easy for you to communicate with the teachers and other students in the class. Basically, you attend a class with your webcam turned on. When you log onto Zoom, your name is used to identify you.

- ❖ Is there an age limit for taking a class?
 - No, there isn't. Anyone can attend a class. Note, however, that the online classes are intended for working adults.

- ❖ Is there a textbook? How do I get one?
 - Textbook information is provided in the course descriptions. For Online Japanese Language Courses, you are required to pay tuition upon application, and the tuition includes the price of the textbook and shipping. The textbook will be sent to you by Tokyo University of Foreign Studies. However, TUFS will not ship you the textbook if you have taken our online Japanese language course before, and the same textbook is used in the next course you are taking. (E.g. If you have taken a first half of Elementary / Pre-Intermediate / Intermediate / Advanced level in the previous course and are proceeding to a last half of the level, TUFS will not ship the textbook to you. In other words, we do not duplicate shipment.) Even the textbook is not shipped to you, the price of the textbook will NOT be subtracted from the course fee. For Culture Courses, all study materials will be distributed digitally.

 - No. You must apply before the classes start. Mid-course enrollment is not allowed as it may disrupt the progress of the class.

- ❖ How can I access the online class?
