

150th TUFS Anniversary Scholarship “Study Support Project Fund” Application Guidelines

We are gathering applications for students who find themselves in financial difficulties due to the spread of the corona virus.

I. Overview

This is a scholarship that does not to be returned. Through this “Study Support Project Fund” scholarship, we aim to help those who find themselves in financial trouble due to the current pandemic.

II. Students who qualify for Support

We are going to prioritize students who have been financially affected by the corona virus pandemic and meet the following criteria.

1. Students who meet 1-6.

(1) Students who are independent from their homes and support their studies through part time jobs.

- ① Does not receive large amounts of money from their family.
- ② Lives out of their family home (those living at home can still apply).
- ③ Part-time job earnings are mainly used for daily life and study expenses.
- ④ Due to a decrease of family income, extra financial help is unlikely.

(2) Earnings have dropped dramatically due to the corona virus.

- ⑤ Part-time job earnings have dropped dramatically (more than 50%).

(3) Applicant is considering using other support programs in order to ensure studying in the long run.

- ⑥ In general, must meet either of the following.

ㄱ) Is currently receiving education financial support in category I. (Resident Tax exempt household) (Those who are yet to apply included, it is the same for the following)

ㄴ) Those who are currently receiving education financial support in categories II/III (Resident tax exempt equivalent households) and are receiving student loans without interests to the top (Monthly 50-60 thousand yen). (Those who are yet to apply included. It is the same for the following)

ㄷ) Household incomes do not qualify for the new system but is currently receiving student loans to the maximum.

ㄹ) Those who cannot apply to the new system nor interest-free student loans but are using aid available to their cases.

※International students shall follow the requirements for the JASSO scholarship for Privately – Financed International Students (instead of ⑥ above)

ㄱ) Academic excellency (previous year GPA must be 2.30 and above)

ㄴ) Generally, attendance rate must be over 80%

ㄷ) The financial aid provided by their families must be less than 90,000 yen per month (Tuition and enrollment fees excluded).

ㄹ) Supporters living in Japan must be earning less than 5 million yen per year.

2. Taking 1. into consideration, students who are deemed to be in a difficult financial situation.

III. Students that qualify and support overview

Undergraduate and graduate students (international students included) will be granted 30,000 yen (MEXT Scholarship students do not qualify).

IV. Number of Students to be aided

Up to 500.

V. Storage of Documents

Students who are granted the scholarship must submit paperwork that proves their household and part-time job earnings have dropped within the last 6 months (income certificate or bank book with transactions visible). Additionally, receipts of rent payments must be kept in storage until March, 2022 and must be presented when asked to do so. If a student fails to do so, the scholarship must be returned.

VI. Application Method

Please apply through the indicated form-mailer. (Those who apply through the form-mailer do not need to hand in the Scholarship Application Form (File 1).

VII. Application Period

May, 19, 2021 to May, 31, 2021.

VIII. Returning the scholarship

Students who meet either of the following must return the scholarship.

(1) Fail to present documents.

(2) False declaration in their application.

(3) When the need for the scholarship cannot be proved.

IX. Contact

Student Affairs Division, Academic Affairs Departments

Mail: gakusei-kakari@tufs.ac.jp